MT. HEALTHY HIGH SCHOOL

THE STEPS TO SUCCESS

Many people have made their way up the front steps of Mt. Healthy High School since the class of 1930 began its senior year in a brand-new building. Up these steps others after them have walked, leaving a clearer path for us.

For the past few years, we members of the Zem Zem Staff of 1959 have used these steps in our own pathway to success. We have tried to keep in mind the achievement of the past as a pattern for our success of the present, both in work and in play, and our hopefulness for the future, no matter what our life's endeavor.

So from the realization of the traditional part these few steps play in any class's career, we shall use them in the theme of this book, "Steps to Success."

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Our "Steps To Success" could not possibly be climbed without the aid of the faculty at Mt. Healthy High. Sometimes it may seem that the teacher is too strict or that there is too much homework. But remember that joke, smile, or extra minute after class to explain something you did not understand?

SEATED: Mr. Butterfield, Mr. Bernhardt, Mr. Morris. STANDING: Mr. Hartung, Mr. Hochscheid, Mr. Byars, Mr. Ralph.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

SUPERINTENDENT — REX RALPH

President--Chester Bernhardt

Vice President--Vaughn Butterfield

Clerk-Treasurer--Walter Hartung

Members--Paul Byars, Howard Hoshscheid, Wm. Morris

Rex Ralph was just coming in the door when we took this picture. Mr. Ralph, Superintendent of Schools, is well liked by all the students.

Mr. Ralph--Superintendent

Mr. Hartzler--Principal

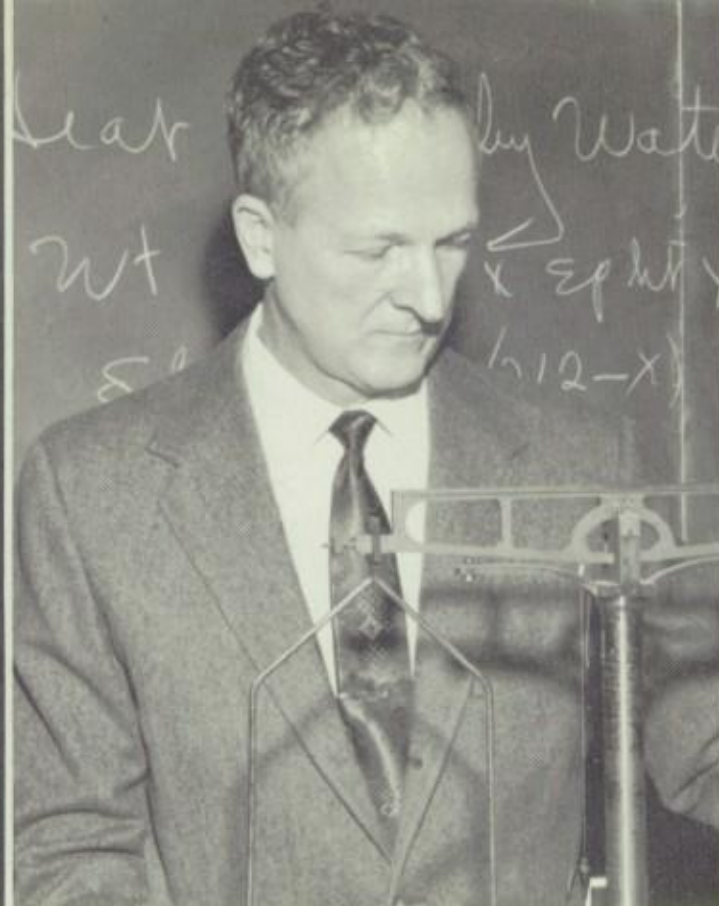

M.D. Hartzler, Principal of Mt. Healthy, looks amused as he reads the morning announcements. This usually starts off his busy day.

Mrs. Roach--Dean of Women

Many students go to Ruby Roach for counsel or information. Mrs. Roach, Mt. Healthy's counselor, is a busy person, but she always finds time to give her full attention to a student's problem or question. She also advises Student Council and Y-Teens.

"These grades aren't bad at all," says Corinne Baisden. The week semester grades come out is especially busy for Mrs. Baisden, who teaches General Business, Business Arithmetic, and Shorthand I and II.

Roland Bartle looks interested in this experiment he is performing for his physics students. He also teaches chemistry and advises Camera Club, Zem Zem, and Science Club.

Joann Best surely makes classes interesting for her algebra I and practical math students. Here she is explaining the algebra assignment.

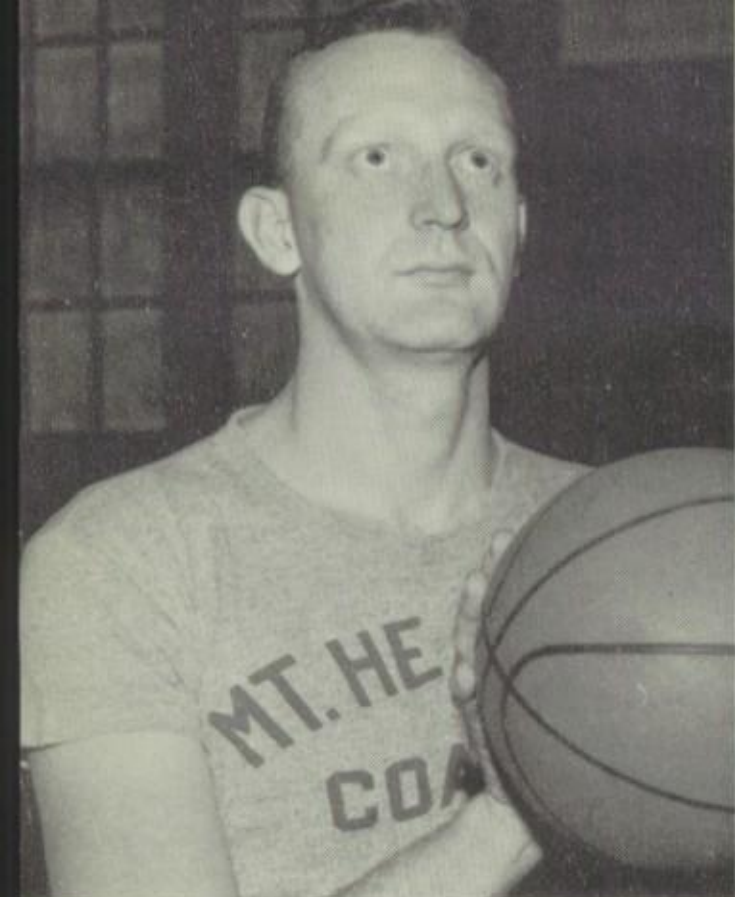

Bill Brinker seems to be enjoying one of his many class projects. Mr. Brinker keeps busy teaching general science and advising Senior Hi-Y. He also coaches Freshman basketball and reserve football and baseball.

For anyone who is interested in dissecting a worm or frog, Bill Cook is the teacher to have. In teaching Biology, Mr. Cook uses many models such as this one of a heart.

Any one of Jim Danbury's students will tell you there is never a dull moment in his English II and IV classes. Mr. Danbury has that special talent for making even grammar and Shakespeare interesting.

"Now, do you have any questions about what we just covered?" asks James Dent of his students. Mr. Dent uses this chart to teach Civics.

Looks as if John Dunette really wants to put that ball in the basket. Mr. Dunette teaches Physical Education and keeps study hall on alternating days. He coaches Reserve Basketball and Varsity Baseball.

Although Ruth Fredricks detests a blackboard compass, she used one for this picture. Algebra II, Plane Geometry, Trigonometry, and Solid Geometry are all taught by good-natured Miss Fredricks.

Ethel Frost has a big job as adviser to the Zem Zem Staff and Latin Club. Putting out a yearbook is plenty of hard work. Miss Frost teaches Latin I, II, and III and English III.

Wm. S. Henry calls for a little more from the woodwinds during a Senior band rehearsal. Mr. Henry directs Senior band, grade school band, and gives many lessons throughout the day.

Norma Grossoehme is deciding whether this art work deserves an A or B. Mrs. Grossoehme teaches Art I and II.

Looking up from his drawing board, Biff Hoffman explains what he is doing. Mr. Hoffman teaches Mechanical Drawing I and II and Industrial Arts I.

Ralph Jarvis feels right at home amid tools and machines in the Industrial Arts Lab. Mr. Jarvis teaches Manual Skills to the 7th and 8th grades and the boys in Industrial Arts I and II.

Patricia Kennedy's Physical Education classes enjoy doing exercises to music. Miss Kennedy, who teaches Phys. Ed. and Girls' Health, is adviser to G.A.A. and Pep Squad.

Don Kuhlmann, who teaches Economics, Sociology, American History, and Physical Education, is pictured here with the barbells. He uses them in teaching Phys. Ed.

Diane Mackey is amused by something one of her students has said. Mrs. Mackey, who teaches English I, came to Mt. Healthy just this year.

John McNabb is making all these little circles and arrows for our basketball team. He hopes these plays will carry the team to victory. Mr. McNabb is Varsity Basketball coach and teaches American History.

Pictures of the bullfights in Mexico and Spain decorate the walls in Berta Mae Miller's room. Miss Miller teaches Spanish I and II, English II, and advises Spanish Club and Hoot'n Holler.

Harriet Nevin consults the dictionary when teaching her English III classes. Then she is never in doubt. Mrs. Nevin is adviser to the Junior Class. This keeps her very busy.

Robert Rammes seems to be having a good time playing the organ. Mr. Rammes teaches vocal music and directs Concert Chorus.

Don Ray's students are sure to know the lesson when he gets finished. Business Arithmetic, Practical Math, Bookkeeping I, and Law Sales are all taught by Mr. Ray. In addition, he is adviser to Sophomore Hi-Y.

Paul Schlosser doesn't look too nervous as he gets into the Driver's Training car. Mr. Schlosser is the Driver's Education instructor along with teaching boys' health and coaching Varsity Football.

World History might seem dull to some, but not to Chris Stefan's classes. Mr. Stefan is Mt. Healthy's athletic director and one of the World History teachers.

Mary Ruth Trippel must be typing something very interesting. Mrs. Trippel, who is an expert herself, turns out many expert students from her typing I and II, and Office Practice students.

We caught Mary Tyree just as she was taking some scrumptious baked goods out of the oven. Mrs. Tyree teaches Home Economics and advises Home Ec. Club.

Jane Van Deventer knows how to whip up becoming clothes in a jiffy as do her students in Home Economics I, II and III.

The speech I and II students really learn how to improve their speech and pantomime in Barbara Young's classes. Mrs. Young teaches speech and World History and advises Spotlight Club.

Helen White surely keeps busy supplying all the students with reference material for their many classes. Mrs. White is full time librarian and adviser to L.G.D.

Mt. Healthy is proud of its efficient secretary, Vera Ernst. Mrs. Ernst does a wonderful job with all the secretarial work for the school.

Barbara Shultz, the school nurse, is always on hand to care for a sick or injured student. Mrs. Shultz, who is a Mt. Healthy High School graduate, is the nurse for all the Mt. Healthy Public Schools.

Looks as if everyone wants to get to his mailbox at once. This just goes to show that even teachers are a bit rowdy at times.

The faculty members enjoy the punch and cookies served to them by Home Ec. III students at the annual tea.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Among the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen pictured in the new few pages are many students who excel both scholastically and athletically. It is apparent that our underclassmen see clearly their "Steps To Success."

JUNIOR WASHINGTON TRIP — APRIL 8-12

Holding up that statue, Carol?

That's a pretty good sized pillar! (Guess which one's the pillar.)

These gals take a "breather" after many miles of walking.

The Capitol dome surely looks beautiful at night.

Hope nobody's nose bleeds at high altitudes.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

On April 2, 1959 a chapter of the National Honor Society was installed at Mt. Healthy High School by the North College Hill Chapter. The society had previously granted the new charter.

Membership in the organization is based on Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character.

To be eligible for election to membership, a student must be a junior or a senior with a cumulative average of 90% or above and must have been enrolled at Mt. Healthy High School at least one semester.

A limited number of members of each class may be admitted each year.

Jean White lights the candle of "Leadership" during the installation.

Judy Fisher of N.C.H. leads the newly installed members of "National Honor Society" in the pledge of allegiance.

Linda Ness, Secretary; Joyce Denby, Treasurer; Marilyn Wallace, Vice President; and Tom Unks, President get their equipment ready to take a picture.

CAMERA CLUB

Imagination, composition, and selection of subject matter are only a few of the steps that make a good picture. These are shown by the members of the camera club in the contests that are held throughout the year.

Mr. Bartle, the adviser, is always on hand to help the confused novice.

Latin Club is Mt. Healthy's chapter of the Junior Classical League, a national organization. It is composed mainly of second-year Latin students and meets once a month during class time.

In the spring, the Latin Club holds a scrapbook and poster contest for first-year students. The year is highlighted by a picnic, at which first-year students with an average of 90 or above are honored.

Third bell Latin club officers are: S. Clyde, Pres.; B. White, Sec.; R. Flaig, Vice Pres.; V. Logan, Treas.

Fourth bell Latin Club officers are: P. Stout, Sec.; P. Vinson, Pres.; T. Morris, Treas.; J. Cook, Vice Pres.

These are numerous and varied, permitting a wide range of selection from the more hearty sports to the milder forms of athletics.

Girls are given an opportunity to officiate and participate in the activities, to develop an appreciation for sports and games, and to grow in ability, character, and sportsmanlike conduct.

King Dennis Nolte crowns Queen Gale Hudson at the annual G.A.A. Spring Prom.

G. A. A. SPRING PROM

The G.A.A. Spring Prom, the Mardi Gras, was a huge success this year. The girls worked hard to arrange the festive decorations. Everyone had as lively and good a time as the theme suggests. The evening was climaxed by the crowning of the queen and king, Gale Hudson and Dennis Nolte.

Dave Baney accompanies Jim Knight in a smooth tune at the Spring Prom.

Vince Valentino, Dick Holford, Larry Maynard, Don Decker, and Dick Hohenstatt provide some "Rock'n Roll" entertainment in the floor show.

CONCERT

These officers of the sophomores Hi-Y Jim Fein, Chaplain; Mike Dickman, Sergeant-at-Arms; Walley Etzel, Vice President; Dick Flaig, President; and Pete Vinson, Secretary, are planning a money-making project.

New Hi-Y members had the honor of pushing pennies up the sidewalk during initiation.

At noon and before school the girls sell school supplies to earn money for the Junior Red Cross. These girls are doing much to climb the "Steps to Success" as homemakers of tomorrow.

The officers of Home Ec Club, Nancy Macaluso, Diane Schnetzer, Diane Ritz, and Shirley Russell, page through a cook book to get ideas for a buffet dinner.

S. Russell, M. Wiesman, B. Ramp, G. Richmond, C. Kist, C. Kramer, M. Wingerberg, D. Ritz, and L. Ritchie were hostesses to the faculty at a tea.

The staff members have gained knowledge and experience in working on a newspaper, and they have had fun doing it.

These members and officers of the Hoot'n Holler look at a recent issue of the paper.

Some of the staff members enjoy reading the papers they worked on so hard.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization with representatives from grades nine through twelve. On our "Steps to Success" its purpose is to give the students means of expressing themselves for the best interest of the school.

Besides selling mixed nuts and stationery, this year they sponsored an all-school club project in order to provide draperies for the windows in the gymnasium.

Three of our Student Council members, Bob Ware, Don Henn, and Sue Kummier, are "seen off" as they leave with Mrs. Roach for the State Convention in Columbus.

Our student bulletin board committee surely did a fine job this year in keeping us posted on all current news.

Nancy Wallbrech and Art Stratman look happy as they are voted Queen and King at the annual Y-Teens Christmas Prom.

Y-TEENS CHRISTMAS PROM

Nancy receives the traditional "kiss" from Art after being crowned--You look "sort of" envious Jerry.

Kirby Bowen, Tom Van Valey, and Ed Burns did a riotous job on this "wild" tune in the floor show.

ZEM ZEM STAFF

ROW ONE: Mr. Bartle, E. Carter, J. Staubach, J. Cook, D. J. Nolte, Miss Frost. ROW TWO: J. Westendorf, J. Mueller, A. Auburn, A. Lindsey, S. Kummeler, L. Stevenson, J. Haefele. ROW THREE: J. Davis, S. Caldwell, A. Sibert, A. Stratman, H. Nevin, K. Hagedorn. ABSENT: D. Nolte.

The members of the Zem Zem Staff take careful steps in planning Healthy's yearbook. There are plenty of things to keep all eighteen members constantly busy. During the first period they count tax stamps, write captions for pictures, type, draw layout pages, and select and crop pictures. Outside of school there is soliciting for ads.

This year the tax stamp contest with the goal of "Teacher for a Day" to the class bringing in the most stamps was a major money-making project. Also the staff sponsored a dance. A lot of hard work by all the members helped make this year's "Steps to Success" a real success.

The counting of tax stamps is one of the big jobs of the Zem Zem members.

A lot of work is required of the members of the Zem Zem Staff in getting out the yearbook.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

BALI HA'I

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1959 was indeed a wonderful evening to remember. With "Bali Ha'i" as the theme, the gym was transformed completely. Couples danced to the music of the Bull Moose Orchestra amid palm trees and exotic flowers. Most beautiful of all was the mountain concealed by soft clouds of angel's hair.

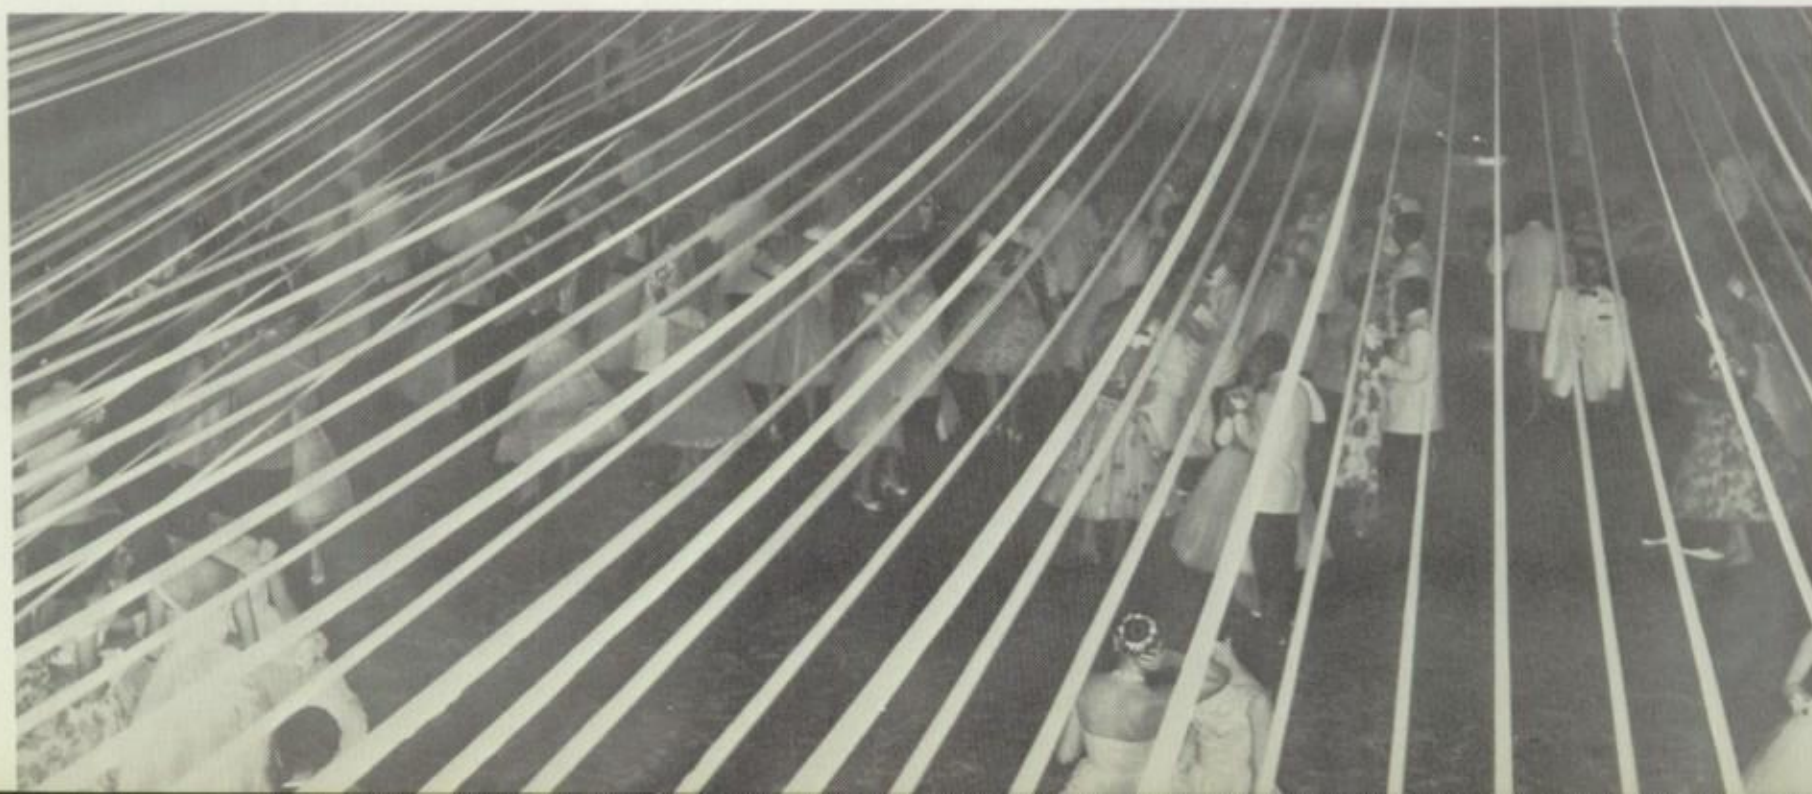

The royal couple was King Ron Rooks and Queen Lynn Stoffregen.

As a part of the floor show, this group of boys sang "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

Gloria Skinner sang and danced to "Wonderful Guy."

The cast in the Senior Class Play take their final curtain call. D. Decker, J. Cook, D. Schnetzer, G. Nevin, N. Wallbrech, J. Barker, T. Seigle, J. Klotz, J. Martin, J. Lloyd, G. Hudson, A. Stewart, B. Van Ausdall.

Alison does the "Can-Can" in the L.G.D. talent show.

Who could forget the humorous drama the sophomore girls did?

Ed Burns and Tom Van Valey surely did a fine job on the drums for Mr. Danbury at the Football Homecoming.

These girls harmonize to "Bali Ha'i" in the talent show.

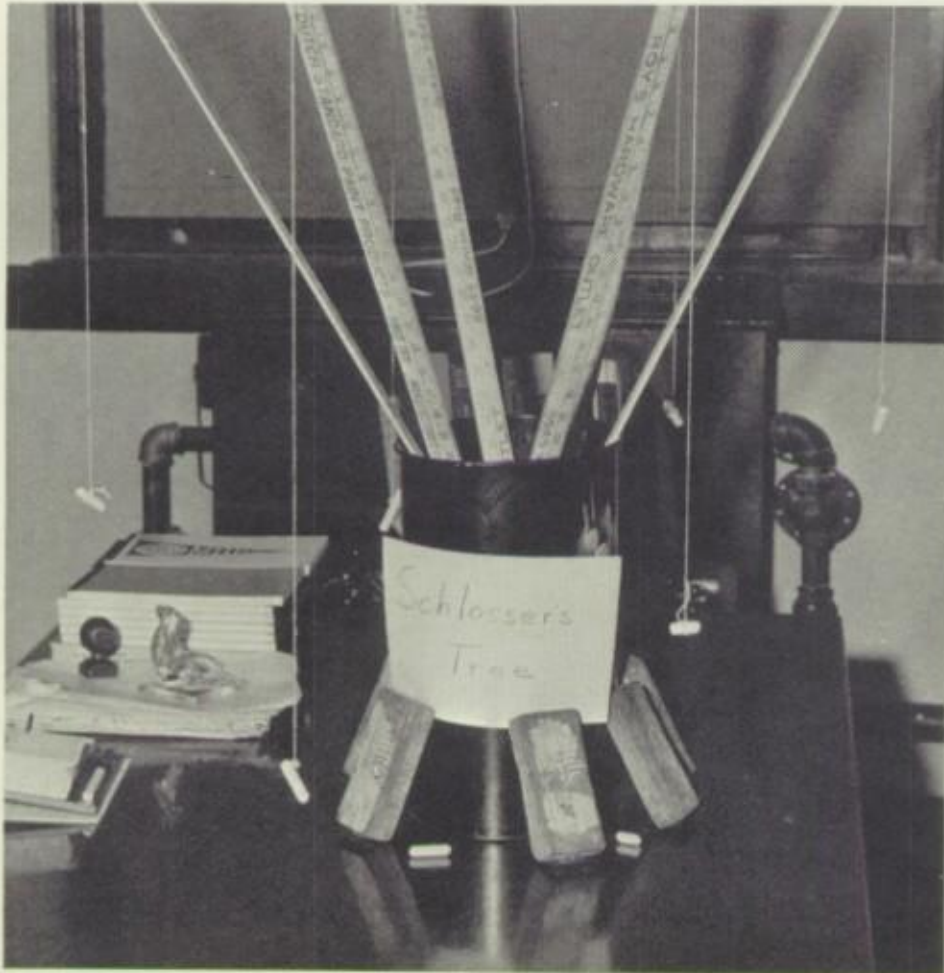

These Freshies look like they're having "fun" during freshman recognition.

The newly installed members of "National Honor Society" receive their pins from Judy Fisher of North College Hill.

We of the Zem Zem Staff of 1959 hope you have enjoyed traveling with us on "The Steps to Success" in remembering the past school year.

At this time I would like to express my appreciation to all those people who have helped make this book possible. Many thanks to George Miltenberger of the American Yearbook Company, Pogues' Photography Studio, Mr. Roland Bartle, the Camera Club, Mr. M. D. Hartzler, Mrs. Ruby Roach, the local merchants, the teachers, and to the student body for their co-operation.

A great deal of credit goes to the members of the staff who worked very hard in order that this book might be published. Most of all, I would like to thank Miss Ethel L. Frost, our adviser. Without her help, we could not have done it.

Jean Staubach
Editor

Softly I closed the book as in a dream
And let its echoes linger
To redeem silence with music,
Darkness with a gleam.
